LEGISLATIVE;

The Right of Way bill has not been re-introduced yet, but it is being worked on. There is an effort to have a North Jersey Senator collaborate with Senator's Madden and Van Drew on some upgrades/modifications to the new Right of Way bill.

In November of 2009 A.B.A.T.E. went to Trenton and successfully fought the MVC's decision to stop the State's mandated motorcycle inspections. The MVC re-introduced the elimination of mandated automobile/non-commercial trucks/motorcycle inspections as a cost saving measure. The projected cost savings resulted in a House & Senate approval, with the Governors' signature within 10 days!

Janet James got two billboards from Clear Channel/Rider insurance.

THE CHANGE IN INSPECTION REGULATIONS

Sweeping changes to New Jersey's vehicles inspection process that are expected to save the cash-strapped state millions of dollars are now in effect. Starting today, passenger vehicles/non-commercial trucks/motorcycles will no longer be checked for mechanical defects during a state-required biennial inspection. Instead, the state's 29 inspection lanes and more than 1,000 licensed private facilities will perform only an emissions test for passenger vehicles/non-commercial trucks.

There is no longer ANY INSPECTION REQUIREMENT FOR MOTORCYCLES!

Motor Vehicle Commission spokesman Mike Horan said each inspections costs the state $21.95. Dropping the mechanical portion of the inspection process is expected to bring down the cost of each inspection by $3.24, which means the state will save about $11 million, he added. Extending the exemption for new vehicles is expected to bring an additional $5.9 million in savings, bringing the total savings to $17 million.

New Jersey State Police figures show only 1 percent of fatal crashes were mechanically related. Of the 1.9 million vehicles that underwent initial mechanical inspections at the state's centralized lanes, only 6 percent failed because of serious mechanical issues such as brakes, steering, suspension or tires.

All motor vehicle commission agencies will also change their hours of operations. Starting this week, all MVC agencies will be closed on Mondays but remain open until 7:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays and until 1 p.m. on Saturdays. The move is expected to save the state an additional $4 million, Horan said. "When you're facing the kind of budget issues that we are facing, you have to look at every penny," Horan
